A couple of trees. Draw the structures for the following sentences in (1) and (2). Follow the examples from the handouts. In this homework, we’re interested mostly in the case and agreement features, but write all uninterpretable features under the head they belong to, as in previous homeworks. Cross out the features as they are checked. If you move a head, draw the complex head (Adjunction). If you move anything, draw < > around the trace.

(1) Citizens should all vote.
(2) Candidates will have been elected.

Example: Pat was slapped.

(3)
